

Valispace Ambassador

Who you are:

- Engineering student (3rd/4th year of BSc or MSc)
- Passionate about systems engineering and software development / technology
- a fast-learner, independent and autonomous, able to communicate clearly and effectively, a doer
- Have consistently worked with Valispace for a student project or in class for +6 months

To be an ambassador, you will:

- Introduce Valispace to Universities around Europe
- Organize workshops/hackathons with students and teachers to increase brand awareness
- Network and ensure a good relationship with all stakeholders
- Be responsible for the smooth implementation of the software in all engineering courses
- Create content for our social media platforms

→ Apply at hring@valispace.com

Start as a Student Ambassador

Perks:

- Network with international students and teachers
- First-hand experience in teaching Valispace
- Internship Opportunity at Valispace
- Receive Industry insights & Network with industry experts, international students and teachers

To Become a Executive Ambassador

Perks:

- Responsible for in-person/online Workshops & Hackathons
- Paid Remuneration + Paid flights & accommodation* (*only available for in-person events)
- First-hand experience in teaching Valispace
- Receive Industry insights & Network with industry experts, international students and teachers